“ Was sorry to hear about the passing of Peggy Robertson. She was a special lady. She was quiet, at least around some of the people who attended church with her in Greensboro, NC. But she was diligent, and often would come to the church building during the week to help. During the spring of one particular year, she planted flowers to help beautify the grounds. Perhaps that was the complement to Hubert, her husband. He worked on the maintenance of the building (one project after another), and she worked in helping with the beauty of the same. I missed her when she went to Winston-Salem, and miss her now that she has gone to her "home/home" (i.e., heaven---her real home). But I'm glad that she is with Hubert....and with the Lord Jesus Christ. Miss you!
