“ Veronda, Lisa, and Tony, I send my heartfelt condolences to you for the loss of your loving caring mother. Peggy never met a stranger, for she knew and loved everyone that had the privilege of ever meeting her. She loved life and living and fought a long, hard battle to stay here. Most of all, she loved her three children and talked about them all the time. She was my best friend, even tho we didn't get to see each other as often as we once did. She could make me laugh, even when I was in the darkest of places. God needed the most beautiful flower in His garden and so He picked Peggy. She was like a big sister to me for all the years that I needed her. She was always there. I hate the thought of not getting to see or talk to her, but I know by God's love and grace....I will see her again one wonderful day....God assures us that death is powerless over us. When we die, we merely step over to a new life that is eternal and full of joy Peggy is now enjoying her pain free, new body, without all the suffering she went through here on this earth. Rest in Peace my dear loving friend, until we meet again.
