“ Rachel was part of our Piggly Wiggly family and was a very special "Piglet" as we call all our employees. She had a great personality that made everyone laugh and a beautiful smile to go with it. She will be missed so very much but not forgotten. Customers are saying how sad they are to hear about her accident and that they always looked forward to seeing her at the Pig. My husband and I are so sorry Rachel's family has to go through this difficult time and we have you all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Joyce and family,
I cannot tell you how sad we are about sweet Rachel. Bless her heart, since our son, Danny's accident, coupled with the loss of her mom, I think Rachel has been lost and so unhappy. She just couldn't find the happiness she so much deserved. In my heart, I feel Danny saw how unhappy she was and asked the Lord to please bring her on home to her Heavenly Home so she wouldn't suffer any longer.
Now, Rachel is walking those streets of gold, happy, with her mom on one side and Danny on the other. They will be spending eternity together. I know my Danny is happy to have his beloved Rachel with him again.
We will pray for you to find comfort and peace in these next days, weeks and months ahead. Just know, she is finally at rest...for the first time in 12 years.

“ I met Rachel in the fall of 2004. I was standing on Violet Oakes porch when Rachel and her Mom Phillis pulled up. She ran out of the car and ran up the small bank to “Ma-Ma”. She hugged Ma-Ma and Jon then met me. She was laughing and full of energy. I will never forget that day. That day lead to 14 years of friendship. She was my best friend.
