

Raymond Leonard McCune Jr.

August 3, 1952 - January 4, 2026

Raymond (Ray) Leonard McCune, Jr., 73, of Danville passed away peacefully through God's saving grace on Sunday January 4, 2026. Ray now lays in peaceful rest. He passed away at home with his loving wife Judy Oakes McCune of 48 years, and his son, Chris (Michael), by his side.

Ray was born in Danville on August 3, 1952, he was the only child of the late Raymond Leonard McCune, Sr. and Evelyn McCune-Walker who survives. He is also survived by his bother-in-law Johnny (Nikki) Oakes. Ray was predeceased by his step-father, Richard Walker.

Ray was the boy-next-door who fell in love with the girl-next-door. He loved hunting, fishing, camping and golfing in his spare time. Ray was a car salesman before his retirement and worked for Robert Woodall in Danville, VA. Ray loved his cat Misty. He was of the Baptist faith and a member of Mt. Hermon Baptist Church.

A graveside service will be held on Tuesday January 6, 2026 at 2:00 p.m. in Danville Memorial Gardens with Pastor Steve Chromy officiating.

The family would like to express their heart-felt thanks to our dear friends and neighbors who looked after us. Thanks to the doctors and nurses in the hospital, and to our Hospice nurse and aides for their generous time and caring for Ray. God bless all of you, He will be very much missed.

Wrenn-Yeatts Funeral Homes, Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the McCune family.
