Whom ever posted the pictures, thank you. I think one is at the “ Rockola “ he took me to some of his hangouts around 2007ish around a year before aunt Sylvia (Dino’s Mom) passed, we made up for lost times together. I sure wish we had more pictures together, and with Harley, the pup he had before Hachi. Hachi filled the void from him loosing Harley. Now Dino will leave a void in all of us, but he’s in a better place now, someday we’ll catch up with him and the rest of the family.

“ Dino and are very close in age, I'm his 1st cousin, and Dino and I were both very competitive as youngsters and fought all the time, but as time went by and I moved to Louisiana we got to see each other much less, and when we did get together we laughed and discussed old times. We both missed not being together very often, for he was living and working in Danville and I was mostly working on boats in the oil fields in the Gulf of Mexico, I never could get Dino to go scuba diving with me in Cozumel, although he was always gonna. I sure wish we all could be together more often. But as again, we're always too late. I miss very much Dino, Johnny and me being at granny's playing in the creek and popping fireworks, Unk Henry sure made 3 little boys very happy then. But Dino did take me around Danville and introduced me to his friends at his hangouts. .... but we'll always have memories.....Captain Crip

“ I'll never forget the first time I met you at shannies. You told me my new name would be "sweet" and boy were you right. You continued to call me that for 4 years. I'm going to miss getting messages from you every holiday to tell me you loved me. You'll always have a special place in my heart. The Shannies family will always miss you. I love you ❤️
