“ My Dad... A Husband to my Mom for close to 50 years, A Father to my Brother and I, A Father in Law to my Husband and Sister in law, A Papa to not only our kids but to all the kids My Mom babysat over the years, A Brother and Brother in law, A Uncle , and a Friend to so many. He was a character that's for sure!! He was passionate about what he believed and wasn't afraid to debate you about it, sometimes it backfired when we didn't agree 😂 Funny and Witty!! Oh Lord he was so funny!!He loved to make people laugh and lit up like a firefly when he was able to get you laughing. He was the person you definitely wanted to sit next to because he would have you laughing until your side hurt!! I'm going to miss you like crazy!! We all are!! Heaven is a little brighter because of you and it's a little dimmer down here because your gone. We Love you Daddy!! 💔

“ I pray that GOD WILL GRANT ALL OF RICKY’S FAMILY HIS COMFORT AND HIS PEACE DURING VERY THIS DIFFICULT TIME !! I have known Ricky since we were old enough to caddie at Danville Golf Club! I played a lot of golf with him back then and he really had a lot of talent! I never could beat him or hit the ball as long as he could! I loved Bobby, Warren and Ricky and had a lot of fond memories with each of them!
