“ I went to Mt.Olivet and Axton middle with Brandon. Ever since he left Axton I always thought about him.. Almost on a everyday basis and still do. He was a fun and cool kid to be around. Im so sorry for your loss and may God continue to put comfort in your lives.

God Bless you,
Shavon M

“ Robert and Family, We were so very sorry to hear about the loss of your son. There are no words that could provide a parent comfort on a loss of a child. Only that someday you can think of him remembering those special memories that will make you smile again. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Doug and Cindy Bilgrav

“ Robert, Pennie, and family-

Words can't express how sorry I am for you loss. Brandon will always hold a very special place in my heart. We have some great memories together and I will never forget them. I am just glad we wrote each other back in February-he seemed to be doing well and in good spirits. My thoughts and prayers are with y'all.

I will always love you Brandon and I know we will see each other again one day in a better place.

“ My heart goes out to the family and friends, so sorry for you loss. Brandon was a special man and I watched him grow through the years, he went to school with my son Jamie Barbour and was good friends with him and his wife Meagan. God has gained a angel and he is smiling down on us all from heaven. We love you always and forever!!
