“ Never had the honor of meeting this man but they say the apple doesn't fall far from the tree. Did have the honor of working with his son Dwayne, so I can imagine how wonderful a man his Dad was. My deepest heartfelt sympathies go out to Dwayne and his wife Tammy, Mrs. Moser and all the rest of family. Thoughts and prayers for strength, healing support and comfort with each of you during this most difficult time.

“ Roger and I worked together at Miller several years and there was never a dull moment. We did take turns instigating a few things then blame it on one another, got a lot of laughs out of it. He will surely be missed, I consider him a true friend. Prayers for the family. RIP Roger “ Roger and I shared riding back and forth to Eden for several years. I still remember many of his jokes and his hunting and fishing tales. He took me under his wing and taught me a lot about bass fishing and I enjoyed my days on the water with him. If you were lucky enough to have J.W. Wilkerson on board with Roger, you could count on it to being a fun trip. RIP, Roger
