“ I have a lot of good memories of Bro. Ronald, but one is particularly special to me. When Beverly passed away, he approached me and asked if he could read a poem that he wrote about Beverly, for her service. Of course, I was ecstatic that he would think of her. It was such a kind and thoughtful gesture! This will forever be a part of memory of him. He was so faithful and never ashamed to talk about the Lord no matter where he was. He is not with his Master and with his beautiful bride. He will forever be missed. My prayers for his precious family, who love him so much!
