“ Ronnie was a former student of mine at Tunstall High School. His smile always made me want to smile. He was pleasant to be around and I am saddened to learn of his untimely death. As a retired teacher, I have lost two former students in the last two weeks and that should not have to happen.

I pray that God will be with his family in the days ahead and that wonderful memories will help them to endure.

“ I had the privilege and honor of meeting Theresa, Ronnie, and Natalie when the were all in high school and we all worked together at Commonwealth Pharmacy! Ronnie was your typical teenage boy, but each of them very respectful! I don't think that I have ever seen him when he wasn't smiling! I met his wife and the two babies at the grocery store just a couple of months ago and it was obvious that he adored them all! Regina I have had the opportunity to worship with you through Emmaus and at times White Oak! My heart is so broken and I pray for this dear family!
