“ Pam I am so sorry for your loss. Ronald was such a sweet soul. The last time I saw Ronald was at my son's funeral. I remember walking up the aisle and hugging Ronald and thanking him for coming. He was such a little trooper. My thoughts and prayers are with you now and always. We are both Mothers who have lost our sons. Love Deborah Martin

“ I am so sorry for the loss of dear Ronald. I hope the words of Jesus Christ that are soon-to-be fulfilled, will somewhat ease your pain. He said that one day "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29) Your Ronald is now simply sleeping, awaiting that call. (John 11:11, 43) At the time of this grand resurrection, sickness and death will be no more. (Isaiah 33:24; Revelation 21:4) All living will be able to enjoy life in perfect health, forever. (Psalm 37:29) Until that time, our Creator, Jehovah, is the "God of all comfort," who invites you, the grieving family, to "throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you," (1 Peter 5:7; 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) Take care and please accept my sincerest condolences.
