*A beautiful tribute to a beautiful person. I really got to know Ronnie on social media, even though we were cousins. From day 1 was a comfort & proud to be his Reynolds cousin. A very outspoken individual who spoke his mind on subjects & that was final. I knew he would have your back, no matter what. He will be missed by many. RIP my friend.

“ Some of my earliest memories are of Buck and Ronnie, two of our older cousins, coming from Danville to visit on the family farm at Callands. We hunted, fished, rode our old bikes, and had some great times together. Buck and Ronnie have both gone on now to be with God but they will continue to live on in our memories. My condolences to the family at this sad time. God bless you all! Carl Reynolds

“ I still cannot believe that you are gone. You were larger than life. You were so full of life, so generous with family and friends. I think you would give a stranger the shirt off of your back. You loved life, your family, and friends. I will never forget your big smile, your hearty laugh, and your great stories. You were loved more than you know. Rest in peace, my friend. ❤️🌹

“ I worked with Ronnie at DuPont and got to know him pretty well. Ronnie was very smart and everything he did he did it well. Ronnie loved his family he always talked about his children. He was a person that was happy and enjoyed life and retirement with his wife. When he told you something you could bet he was telling you the truth. If I was ever going into a war I would want him on my side. Goodbye my friend. Kermit Garrett

So very sorry for your loss. Ronnie was a special man and a pioneer for bass fishing in VA. But above all a good man with a kind heart. My thoughts and prayers are with you all that God may provide you with strength and comfort. .
