

Ronnie Lee Dinkle

July 1, 1958 - September 11, 2016

Ronnie Lee Dinkle died peacefully at his home Sunday, September 11, 2016.

Ronnie was born July 1, 1958 to Clifford Odell Dinkle and Annie Dee Arendall Dinkle. He was a lifetime resident of Danville, Virginia. Ronnie attended Danville Community College and received an Associate of Science Degree, as well as Averett University receiving a degree in Business. Mr. Dinkle worked many years in the hazardous waste business. Most recently, he was employed with the City of Danville, Public Works Department as their Safety and Training Manager. He was very happy with this position, was able to use his skill and expertise in this field, and loved his coworkers. Ronnie enjoyed working on his rental properties, repairing old houses; he made lasting friendships with many families and individuals who rented from him. People would often say I wish I had a landlord like Ronnie. One could often find him fixing up old bicycles which he usually gave away to children of deserving people in the neighborhood, and he was an avid bike rider himself. Ronnie attended Madison Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Dinkle is survived by his wife, Lynn and daughter, Elizabeth. He was loved greatly. Ronnie is also survived by his sister, Peggy Wilkerson, and numerous nieces, nephews and great nieces/nephews.

In lieu of flowers, contributions to Ronnie's memory can be made to Madison

“Ronnie will always be one of the finest men I have ever known. I am a better person for having known him. His daughter is an example of the best parenting - she is a tribute to her dad's memory. His wife worked with him to create a strong, loving marriage. His co-workers will miss his insight and talents. Ronnie left all of us with many gifts....thank you.

I worked for Ronnie many years ago and I am saddened to hear of his passing. He had a special way of working with and training people and I will be forever grateful of his mentorship. I owe a great deal of success in my career to "Dink". The family is in my prayers during this time of loss.
