“ Angie and family, I realize your hearts are so broken. There truly are no words that can ease the pain of this path you must now travel. But, please know you have an army of friends lifting you up to The Throne, standing in the gap on your behalf. Asking The LORD to bring you comfort as you've never known, peace that truly does past all understanding and to be a tangible tower of strength when you feel like yours is waning. May you experience the sensation of the LORD's arms as HE enfolds in HIS embrace soothing the empty and ache that penetrates to the very core of your being. HE will uphold you, uplift your hearts and be your lighted port in this storm.
Love and Blessings

“ It took 38 years for me to know that Faye's first name was Rosa! I truly just thought it was Faye. :) One of the most consistently sweet ladies I've ever known and it's an honor to call her family. <3

“ Faye treated me and loved me like one of her own since I was in diapers. Cannot think of a kinder, more loving human being than her. God bless and may you rest in peace.

“ When I was a kid, Faye and David lived behind my grandmother for a while. I will always remember visiting and going to knock on the door to say Hi to Faye. I could hear the vacuum running, and I also heard the song "Lean on Me" by Bill Withers blasting to be heard over the vacuum. :) That song still reminds me of Faye.
