Thank you, aunt Ruth for being their for us, loving us, and sharing and caring for us when my dad, Melvin, your brother, was in Vietnam. I treasured the times you and I spent together: me brushing your hair, you curling my hair in pen curls for school pictures, the time u and I went to a cooking class for making Spanish rice, and all the home cooked meals. Especially your biscuits. I wish we could have lived closer to family, but military families moved around. My thoughts and prayers are with u and your family.
