“ I remember growing up in her backyard. The pool was the best!! And the trampoline or maybe the snacks she would fix us. Had alot of good times just front porch sittin...something she loved to do. Its hard loosing a grandparent but even harder if its a mom or dad. I will continue to pray for all of you. Much love ❤️

“ Her home was my second home. She loved to garden and sew. I remember her helping Theresa and me make our dress for home economics class. Let me rephrase that she practically made mine since I couldn't sew a stitch. She was the best neighbor and friend that my Granny could have asked for. I will cherish every memory that I have of you. Love and Peace, Angela
