“ There are few people in this world who, just with their presence, make you feel loved, at ease, and comfortable. Sandra was one of those rare ones. In the 22 years I’ve known her she has always been that way. I married into the family and she treated me like family long after her niece and I got divorced. She even made sure to give me a Christmas gift every year. She didn’t have to, but if Sandra knew you loved her she made sure to love you even more in return! She was the sweetest but was not afraid to speak her mind; and she was fiercely protective of her family. The hurt from losing someone so special can never be mended; but I have peace in knowing she’s where the good ones go. I hope to be half as good a person as her and touch a fraction of the lives she’s touched, so I can see her again on the other side of this life. I know she’ll have a big hug waiting for all of us.

All my thoughts, prayers, and love to the family ❤️

“So sorry to hear this. Condolences to the family. I have not seen Sandra for many years. We were high school friends (Sandra: BYHS Class 64), country neighbors and cousins. May she rest in peace. Don C. Webster”

“ We are shocked and heartbroken to hear of Sandra’s passing. Sandra was a client of mine at my salon for 17 years. She was an amazing person. Always so effortlessly beautiful and classy. She always had her hair and nails done and her outfits looked like she had just stepped out of a magazine. We always looked forward seeing her. She had a contagious laugh and we loved listening to her funny stories. She was great at catching us up on all the best sales, especially Macies, Belks and TJ maxx. She had a love of baseball, gardening , Mexican food, her job and most of all her sweet family. She always showed us pics of all of them every time she came and would fill us in on their lives. I feel as though we knew them all. She was so excited to be living back out on the family land. Our hearts are shattered, but I hope you all know that she sure left a beautiful mark on this earth, a hole in our hearts, and touched everyone she met as she lit up a room. She was honestly the best! Sending prayers and hugs during this difficult time. She will be so missed. She was loved by so many, ourselves included.
