“ Aunt Sarah was one of a kind and we are all the better for having known and loved her. She was an inspiration and a joy; fierce and independent with a loving heart. She was a testament of the conviction of God’s love and family foremost in her life. May we all learn from her example. We do hope and pray that loving memories will fill the void in your lives. With our deepest sympathies and heartfelt condolences for your loss.

“ What a gift she was to each of us and what a gift her memories, teachings, and stories will always be. We will all miss her terribly, yet there is peace in knowing she's in a glorious place, reunited with many loved ones who went before her.

“ My grandmother, Sarah Barker, passed away yesterday. I was blessed to know her and shared many fond memories with her over the years. My wife Gina, and children Abby, and Adam took many trips with her to see family and friends. We were always treated to stories of her childhood and life growing up. She never missed an opportunity to tell us how the Lord had blessed her and spoke to her in many ways over the years. I am thankful for the wonderful people who cared for her through her illness, during which time she made even more friends. She often told me how much she loved all her children and was so proud of the lives they were leading. She appreciated the 'round the clock care' from her 3 daughters who live close enough to take shifts helping her, Florence, Sarah, and my mom Nancy. Darlene and Geary, her other 2 surviving children made many long distance trips to show their love, support, and respect as well. Her son Albert, who we all miss, predeceased her last year. I love her and will miss her, but know that she is at peace now.
