“ I remember my Aunt Sarah as such a sweet person. She had such a great smile and her laugh was infectious. My impression, as a young girl, was that she represented a true southern lady. I know she will be greatly missed.
My sympathies to you, Cynthia & Bobby.

“ Fond memories of my aunt as we passed through Danville from time to time. After moving to Texas in 1969 we were not in touch very much. I missed those weekend trips from Rocky Mount as a child. My mom was sister to Sarah ' s late husband Robert. Praying for the family!

“ Many fond memories of visiting family as a child and staying with Aunt Sarah and Uncle Robert. I remember bringing my guitar and singing. I remember family picnics off the carport, bar-b-queuing, and so much more...too many memories to list here.

To my cousins and their families, may peace and light be with you as you mourn the loss of your mother.
