“ I’m very sorry for your loss. Mrs Candler was very nice and I loved talking and interacting with her during the short time I was at Riverside. She made my evenings and was a blessing to me. A truly wonderful lady. Prayers for your family. Jinger Grubbs

“ Always seem to find something to laugh about with Sarah back in the days when I was the pianist at Sandy Creek years ago. Good to share fun times with fun people. Love those memories. God bless!

Les and Katherine had a wonderful marriage together. They had almost 25 years together to travel, go to plays, and love their children. People who knew them in Danville would always tell me,when we came home, that their was one marriage everyone should emulate. Les and Katherine Bell are sorely missed. May they live together in heaven forever. Amen
