“Wow! I was just looking through the Obits and saw Sharon's...what a shock, Sharon and I have known each other since we were born. We went to the same church, same schools and graduated the same year. I haven't seen her in forty years. What a loss!

“ Susan and Sandra,
I was so sad to hear about Sharon. My sisters and I and the three of you were within 1-2 years of being the same age. I can't imagine something happening to one of my sisters. Something like this makes the statement 'We're not promised tomorrow' very real. Both of you, her children, grandchildren and friends are in my thoughts and prayers!

“ Susan and Sandra,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of Sharon. I loved her like a sister. I will never forget the childhood memories of eating peanut butter and jelly sandwiches at the kitchen table after school with your precious mom, Nita, telling us to do our homework. Sharon was a gentle soul with the prettiest eyes I have ever seen. I will cherish the memories. Peace be with you all.
