

Sherman Kenneth Haymore

November 25, 1960 - June 17, 2010

Sherman Kenneth "Kenny" Haymore, Jr. of Midlothian, Virginia, formerly of Danville, died in VCU Medical Center on June 17, 2010, following two years of declining health. Born on November 25, 1960, he was the son of Sherman Kenneth, Sr. and LaVonne Dabbs Haymore of Midlothian, formerly of Danville. He was self-employed in the home improvement business prior to his illness. Kenny, an avid fisherman, golfer, and gourmet cook, was loved by all whom had the pleasure to know him. He was a compassionate man with a huge heart and loved people from all walks in life. Kenny lived life to the fullest, and his adventurous spirit often led him to experience activities that brought much joy to his life and resulted in stories his family and friends will fondly remember and share for many years. In addition to his parents, survivors include an aunt, Brenda Corbin, of Danville, a great aunt and uncle, and numerous cousins. He is also survived by a special friend, Linda Contreras of Amelia, Virginia, and a host of friends. He was predeceased by his paternal grandparents, Sherman and Elsie Haymore, and maternal grandparents, Leon and Edith Doak and Jack and Julia Dabbs. A graveside service to celebrate Kenny's life will be conducted from Highland Burial Park in Danville on Monday, June 21, 2010, at 2 p.m. by the Rev. Freddie Vicks. The family will receive friends Sunday evening from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. at Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel. At other times the family will be at the home of Brenda Corbin, 136 Tolliver Place, Danville. Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Haymore family.
