“ I am just finding out about this and it really breaks my heart... I worked with Sheryl at Moore's Building Supply during 1986-87. She was such a warm, funny, life loving woman! I really find it hard to imagine this world without her. I send my thoughts and prayers to her family as I know this has gotta be a tough time. May God's Grace get you through this time.

“ I want to thank everyone for your kind words and fond memories of our precious Sheryl. It's not possible to convey what she meant to so many people or how she touched so many lives. She had a way of making the good stuff seem better and the bad stuff not so bad at all. She was the center of my universe! Everything in my life revolved around this lady and she was loved like no one else on earth. She made me a better dad a better friend and a better person overall through her daily examples of true compassion for all living beings. There is a void in my heart that will never be filled....but I know we can make it through by reflecting on her memory and applying the same values as she did while she was with us. Sheryl I will always be here for Mason and Davice and will keep a constant check on their whereabouts and make sure they are behaving. I miss you so much! I wake up every morning hoping your there beside me and that this all a really bad dream. I talk to you constantly throughout the day as I can't take two steps without being reminded of you by everything I see. You will always be my everything and I love you and miss you hon....
I will see you soon MY LOVE

“ hello my name is daniel. im sorry to hear of your loss and i know this must be a hard time for the family. But i wanted to share an encouraging thought from the bible. One of my favorite scriptures is (john 5:28, 29) which says, " the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At times of distress we can turn to the encouraging words of the scriptures that promise the dead are in gods memory and he promises to resurrect our loved ones.

“ Sheryl- I knew you for many years and you were a great inspiration to me. You were a very strong and determined lady who if she set her mind to something you usually achieved your goal. You were full of love and compassion that you shared with so many in your life. I was very Blessed to know you and have you as a part of my life. I am sure your strength and love will be carried on by family and friends. You made a difference in a lot of lives and your memory will live on because of this. Rest in peace my friend. “ Last night God delivered complete and total healing to Sheryl. She has a new body in heaven, free from pain, stress & struggle. No more battles, no more fighting, no more doctors. saying that I know It's so hard trying to understand why God decided that heaven (instead of earth) was where her healing would take place. We miss her & our hearts grieve for the loss of such a wonderful person. I pray that we can all try to take comfort in knowing that she is in Gods arms now and she will live on in our hearts forever. You will never be forgotten Sheryl. We will all cherish the memories of you till we meet again. rejoice in heaven, & know that we love you.
