“ I have so many fond memories of Aunt Shirley. Some of my fondest childhood memories are from spending weekends and summers with you guys over on Jefferson Street. Aunt Shirley though always full of love and kindness, knew how to crack her whip to keep her house in order and we ALL fell in line. I remember all of us piling into her blue station wagon riding around Danville. Aunt Shirley was probably the first real "foodie" in my life and I loved that about her. I was just telling Darrell last night (and we were laughing) about a time when Aunt Shirley was eating something and Ma Bea turned around saying "doggone it, Shirley, sometimes I think you could crunch a banana!" Those were the good old days. To my cousins and aunties, I love you all and continue to pray for your comfort & peace. May Aunt Shirley Now Rest In The Eternal Peace Promised By Our Father In Heaven.
