“ Shirley was a wonderful person who was so respected by our family and the people around Danville and her church. I remember so fondly of the Rogers family reunions where she made all kinds of great food. She always would make me an egg custard pie which was one of my favorites. I know she is at rest and peace now with no pain. Her and my mother suffered with similar health issues and they would always compare notes with each other. Mike, I commend you for taking care of Henry and Shirley especially after Ray went home. Now, Shirley, Henry, Ray and Shawn are back together again praising God and celebrating their reunion. I cannot think of any woman that I have known in my life that was more Godly, loving and faithful to her family than Shirley was. May God bless all of you during this time of sorrow. Remember, this is a homecoming for her.
