

Shirley Newcomb

May 21, 1938 - October 26, 2010

Shirley Jene Gibson Newcomb, 72, of 209 Oakwood Circle, passed away on Tuesday, October 26, 2010 at UVA Hospital in Charlottesville, VA 2010 with her family by her side after being in declining health for the past month. Mrs. Newcomb was born in Pittsylvania County on May 21, 1938 the daughter of the late Fletcher Lee Gibson (Buck) and the late Addie Gibson Williams. She spent most of her life in the Danville area where she was a homemaker and a member of White Oak Worship Center. She was the kindest and sweetest person and was loved by all who knew her - she was particularly loved by young people because she was so young at heart. We will all miss her. But the definition of miss is to feel the absence of; she'll never be absent from our lives. She'll be at every holiday, birthday, and every other important event in our lives. She'll just be healthier, happier, and next to Jesus with her signature smile! We'll still always say the phrases she's known for and celebrate her life forever. Mrs. Newcomb is survived by two daughters, Debbie Roach and her husband Ben of the residence and Cathy Allen and her husband Danny of Danville, VA; one sister, Margaret Lawrence of Danville, VA; six grandchildren, Jason Roach, Kasey Roach, Larry Newcomb, Jr., Austin Newcomb, Jeremy Newcomb and Ben Newcomb; and one great grandchild, Aiden Newcomb. She was predeceased in death by one son, Larry Newcomb, Sr.; one grandchild, Lisa Allen; and four brothers and three sisters. Funeral services will be conducted on Saturday, October 30, 2010 at 2:00 p.m. at the Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel with the Reverend Roger Ewing officiating. Interment will follow the service in Danville Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends on Friday, October 29, 2010 from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the funeral home and at other times the family will be at the residence of her daughter, Cathy Allen at 116 Charles Towne Drive, Danville, VA 24541. Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Newcomb family.
