“ You taught me how to have really big hair, how to curl my lashes, and no matter what to be myself, even if that meant pissing off everyone around me. I road my first roller coaster with you, you tried to teach me to drive a stick shift but I was hopeless. You were a free spirit, and I loved that I could talk to you about anything. Life took us in different directions, but we always found each other again even if it was just a hi I love you and a hug. Then I ran into over the summer, and we started texting and making plans to get together and ride out to Nanny and papas old house and walk and talk. I hate we didn't get to do that, but I know you and Nanny are walking and talking and watching over me now. I Love You so much and saying goodbye is so hard <3
