“ Mike, Debra and the Neal family. You are in our thoughts and prayers. It is so hard for parents to give up a child, we always feel we will go first. Stephanie was a strong, beautiful young woman in life and in faith. Her life was short here on earth, but she is now in the arms of the LORD she loved and the only one who could give her everlasting life. We will see her again one day and what a reunion that will be Know that you will be in our prayers daily that GOD will give you strength and peace. She was blessed to have you as her parents, no child could have been loved more. GOD BLESS your family.

“ Dearest Mike and Debra,
Our lives have crossed here and there since Stephanie was a child. I was amazed how she handled her health problems as a child and even more so as she grew up. I am so blessed to have been a very small part of the life of such an amazing person. I loved her strength and belief in God. Thankful Stephanie and I talked from time to time. So sorry for your loss as Stephanie was a ray of sunshine.

“ To the Neal Family and to the Ringgold Fire and Rescue Family, Stephanie was such an inspiration to so many of her friends she had on social media. Even when she felt her worse, she always made the rest of us feel better. She was such a sweet loving young lady. Stephanie stepped into a beautiful place where she is no longer in pain and her worries are over. Jesus met her as she entered her new home. May God wrap his loving arms around all of you as you share so many memories. May he comfort you as you face these next few days and weeks. Stephanie loved life and she is now your guardian angel. Know that you have so many people praying for you. The community is here for you. Fletcher and Teresa Barber

“ My thoughts and prayers are extended to the Neal family. Stephanie was a brave soldier over the years to have dealt with her health issues in such a valiant way. She was also very dedicated to her family, friends, her job, Ringgold Fire and Rescue as well as Ringgold Baptist Church. Stephanie no longer suffers but is in heaven surrounding herself with the love of God and her family and friends that have gone on before her. May God bless the Neal family during this time of loss.
