“ Sue was a loving, welcoming person. She was there for me when I was down, always encouraging me and lifting me up. She was the first one to share a prayer, a smile or a song. I loved hearing her sing praises. Sue helped with Summer Camp for the church and even at 6 am she had a ready smile and a welcoming hug. I equated "church" with her presence - she was one of the first people that I would see. There are no words to express my sorrow or how much she will be missed. My prayers continue for Spencer, Zach, and Rebecca. I will see her again, someday!

“ Sue and I were childhood friends at Shockoe Bapt Church and in the past few years reconnected as friends on Facebook. I'm so sad for her family to hear of her final homegoing. She was a very sweet person and all the world that she touched will miss her! I pray that you as her family will feel God's loving tenderness at this time..... May God bless you all!

“ I only knew Sue for a short while, just since she moved to South Boston to be near her precious grandchildren. We became instant friends. She was a genuine Christian lady who made many sacrifices for her loved ones. I pray for peace and comfort for her family and friends. She was special to many people and will certainly be missed.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Spencer, Zach, Rebecca and the family. Sue touched everyone's heart that she came across she was the most loving caring selfless person I knew. My life is better because she was a part of it. She was my rock when I needed one and a shoulder to cry on when I needed it. She was everyone's prayer warrior and she will be forever in our hearts and memories and will be missed by all.

Spencer, I am praying for you, your sister, Zach, and Becca. Sue and David were our neighbors for many years. I always read Sue's biblical FB posts. We also corresponded on Messenger and prayed for one another. I think when I say "I understand," you know what I am talking about. I know what heartbreak Sue and all of you have been dealing with. I know Sue's passing is also heartbreaking for all of you. As Sue posted on her FB cover page..."It is well with my (her) soul." Sue is free of heartache and pain and is in heaven with her God, her Savior Jesus Christ, and the love of her life, David. David passed away on September 3, 2000. After 18 long years of grieving, Sue is now with David for eternity. May God give all of you comfort, strength, and eventually peace.

“ My heart and prayers are with Zack, Rebecca and Spencer, may God be your comfort in such a tragic time. I know that her heart has been mended in Heaven all the hurt and pain no longer exist and she is no longer suffering. May the promise of Heaven comfort her sweet grandchildren and her son in law which was her son in her heart, she no longer suffers from the scars of her heart.

“ Sue was the sweetest next door neighbor to my mother on Northmont. Whenever my family and I would travel up to see my mom, Sue would bring us loaves of her sourdough bread. The best sourdough bread around! We shared laughter and tears. Sometimes we got to see Zack and Rebecca. So precious! I will miss the Facebook pictures and her uplifting quotes.

“ We offer our condolence and prayers to the family of Mrs Sue Burnett.
This was Home-Going-Day for our special, precious friend. One of the highlights of my 63 years of preaching was to be able to serve as Sue, her Mother Ann, Brother Kim, Grandpa and Grandma Dixon's pastor for over seven years. Sue and her Mother came to visit at a church I served as pastor in NC and she sang in the Worship hour. Family members you have our prayers and continued thoughts during this time and days to follow. Look Up!

“ I have known Sue for most of my life. She was an angel. I would not be where I am today were it not for her. I was honored to share her birthday. I will miss her by my side at the piano and seeing her sweet face in the choir loft. I will never forget her beautiful singing voice. 😭

“ I am so sorry for your families loss. Sue was an awesome lady who had the ability to make everyone feel special. The world will be a darker place without her light. I will always cherish the years we served the Lord together at Timberlake. Please let us know if we can do anything.
