

Susan Peters Beltram

May 9, 1949 - July 3, 2022

Susan Peters Beltram, 73, of Danville, VA went home to be with the Lord on Sunday, July 3, 2022, after a long and courageous battle with cancer.

Born May 9, 1949, in Danville, VA, to the late Buford N. Peters and Gaynell Megginson Peters, Susan grew up in Danville and attended Tunstall High School.

After high school, she attended Artistic Beauty College and worked as a beautician. She then joined Corning Glass where she worked for many years. She was of the Baptist faith.

Susan loved many things, including Hershey bars, animals, Glenn Frey, and her Diet Pepsis. Everything she did, she did whole-heartedly, with much love and compassion. Susan was a fearless strong-willed, and warm-hearted woman. She could always make someone laugh and tell a great story. Her love for her family was evident in everything she did. She was the most selfless person one could be, always putting others before herself.

Susan was preceded in death by her brothers, Tony and Nelson Peters, as well as her parents. She is survived by her daughter, Kelly Parrish Bray, her eldest granddaughter, Victoria S. Satterfield and husband Neal, younger granddaughter, Makenzie P. Bray, and precious granddogs, Chloe and Verdell, all who loved her dearly. Her memory will live on in the hearts of those who love her. She will be greatly missed.

A private memorial service will be held. A livestream of the service will be viewable via the following link: <https://youtu.be/zrDEIYpC510>

The family suggests that memorials may be made to the World Wildlife Fund, 1250 24th Street NW, Washington, DC 20037.

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the family.

“ Susan was a very special cousin to me. There were many of us cousins that grew up together on (the hillside) many years ago. What precious memories we have. Susan could make people laugh so much. To Kelly, Victoria, Mackenzie, May God Bless you and give you comfort during this difficult time. Love to you all! 🙏🕊️

Susan and I went to Artistic beauty College at the same time. Never a dull moment. We got into so much trouble with the teacher laughing and cutting up. Susan is one loving dear friend I will never forget. God bless her children and family during their loss.
