

Thelma Boyard Barbour

July 18, 1922 - December 26, 2017

Thelma Boyard Barbour, 95, of Danville, passed away on December 26, 2017 after several years of declining health.

Ms. Barbour was born in Pittsylvania County, VA on July 18, 1922 a daughter of the late James Millard Barbour and Gertrude Hines Barbour.

She spent most of her life on the family farm at Sandy River, in the Axton Community. She worked for over 40 years in 4B Weave Room in Dan River Mills. Affectionately called Boyard by her family she was happiest outside in her garden & yard.

Survivors include a sister, Elizabeth B. Williams, and a number of nieces & nephews and special nieces and caregivers Arlene Huff & Judy W. Giles.

She was predeceased by seven brothers, Posie, Bruce, Clifford, Towler, Ben, Ernest and Paul Barbour; and four sisters, Curtis Gregory, Callie Jones, Beatrice Meadows, and Catherine Moore.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday, December 28, 2017 at 2:00 PM at the Hines Family Cemetery off Mount Cross Road conducted by the Rev. Bob Huffman.

The family will be at the residence of Elizabeth Williams.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests that memorial donations be made to the Danville-Pittsylvania Cancer Association.

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is serving the Barbour family.

Previous Events

Graveside

DEC 28. 2:00 PM (ET)

Hines Family Cemetery
Mount Cross Rd
Danville, VA 24540

Tribute Wall

EL

“ I remember my sister Cathy and I going to stay with my great grandmother and my great aunt Boyard in the country when I was little. When she got off work from the mill she would always stop at the country store and bring us ice cream. Rest in peace now. I love you. Edie

Edie Lambert - December 28, 2017 at 07:07 PM

FL

“ Falina Long lit a candle in memory of Thelma Boyard Barbour

Falina Long - December 27, 2017 at 09:05 AM