

Thelma Hancock Chilton

May 26, 1943 - March 30, 2025

Thelma Hancock Chilton, 81, of Danville, Virginia went to be with her Lord and Savior on Sunday, March 30, 2025 after a decline in health over the last year.

She was born on May 26, 1943 in Danville, Virginia to the late William Lawrence Hancock Sr. and Evelyn Deering Hancock. On February 22, 1963 she was married to Robert D. Chilton who still survives.

Thelma was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and loyal friend. Many who knew her, knew her love for the Lord and her Church. She loved reading her Bible, listening to gospel music, and watching the Gaithers and many more on tv. She worked many years in the City of Danville public school system before retiring. She attended Central Boulevard Church of God faithfully, before her decline in health.

In addition to her spouse she leaves behind a son, Bobby Chilton (Darla) of Charlotte, three daughters, Rhonda Thomas (Bruce) of Bassett, Sherry Isom of Ringgold, and Cathy Morris (Jason) of Ringgold, seven grandchildren, Alyssa Hines (Brad), Ashley Chilton, Taylor Isom, Justin Chilton, Chase Isom, Samantha Morris, and Olivia Morris, and several great grandchildren.

She is survived by five siblings, Harold Hancock, Robert Hancock, Louise Adkins, Ann Searce. and Pauline Bruce.

She is predeceased by four siblings, Peggy Goodman, Ruth Anderson, William (Junior) Hancock and Bennie Hancock.

The funeral service will be held on Tuesday, April 1, 2025 at 2:00 p.m. at the Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel with Reverend Billy Hedrick officiating. Interment will follow in Danville Memorial Gardens.

The family will receive friends prior to the service at the funeral home from 12:30 p.m. until 1:45 p.m. and at other times they will be at the residence.

Wrenn-Yeatts Funeral Homes, Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Chilton family.

“ Thelma was a beautiful lady and a special friend to me. Although I hadn't been able to see her since covid, she was often in my thoughts. She and Robert were such a great example of a Godly marriage. My heart goes out to all her family. May God comfort, as only He can. Our loss is Heavens gain.
