“ Virgil was a good heart-ed person. He was a loyal companion to Carol Moore whom he took care of for many years. He was well thought of by many people. He was a very down to earth person whom he loved the outdoors and nature. He will be missed very much so and my prayers go out to him and his family.

Love,

Anita Moore

Virgil was a good man. I remember him caring for my sister, Carol Moore, and helping her in every way he could. We spoke often before he had his throat surgery and then, of course, he couldn't. He always spoke of his children with love. He told me how much joy Izzy gave him. I am so sorry things have to end like this. He will be missed! Love and Prayers, Linda and Van
