*I'll miss your big hugs and stories you'd repeat over and over again that never got “ Allan and I go way back to our teenage years when he lived on Clark St in Lynchburg. I lived only a couple blocks away. We always had a love for cars, Allan had some beautiful cars that we recently reminisced about how we would love to have those cars today. We would cruise the streets on Friday and Saturday nights. Allan and I and some other friends loved to go hunt on his uncle's property down at Mt Athos. We fished together with Kelly, Ronnie, Tom and myself. Allan really loved to fish. I will really miss talking to Allan. We always talked about the good 'ol days. Rest in peace Allan. You will surely be missed!

“ Alan and I were great friends going back to our high school years. Had lots of good memories of our days hunting and fishing and circling the Big Boy and Hollies Mill Drive Inn on Friday and Saturday nights in Lynchburg. We loved our Chevy's and were always up for any challenge. True friends are hard to come by and I consider Alan a good true friend. Will miss talking to himGod Bless
