“ Debi and I wish to share our heartfelt condolences to the family of our dear friend Wallace. His demeanor and charming wit was always a welcome sight at our home. Together we shared a common interest in many subjects. His loving devotion to our pets enhanced our respect for his gentleness, his morality and unselfish behavior. Wallace was even more than a friend to me. He was like the brother I never had. We are forever saddened by his death and look forward to our reunion with him through our Savior, Jesus Christ.

“ What an incredible man! His love for his family was immeasurable. During our talks over the last few years, Wallace always filled me in on what was going on with the nieces and nephews. He was so proud of Connor and what an amazing musician he is. He talked about his "girls" Carla, Claire, Caitlin and Callie and their love for the horses and all animals. He talked about Trey and following in his grandfather's footsteps. My fondest memories are sitting around the table or on the porch, talking for hours. He will be missed by so many. I take comfort in knowing he is with Ms. Sherri now. Our thoughts and prayers are with Luann and Joe and their families during this very difficult time. We love you.

I never really got to know him, just a couple of meetings, but I got a rare glimpse into my wife's family at a few gatherings in NC. I was grafted into this exceptional family, they all were very receptive towards me, which speaks volumes about who they are. I felt the love they all feel for one another, their closeness was something you noticed right away. I can only say that there will no doubt be yet another hole that can not be filled by the loss of Wallace. My deepest sympathies to all the family members, Wallace now rest in the arms of our Savior Jesus Christ, may he be met by those who have passed before him, I'm sure they are all together.

I am so sorry to hear of Wallace's death. He and Sherri were such kind and loving young people. They kept my little Jack Russell, Cricket for years, when my husband and I had to be out of town. Wallace was always such a gentle and polite young man and was gracious every time I saw him. My thoughts and prayers are with his sister and brother as well as all the family. May God bless you with His comforting presence. Sincerely with love, Mrs. Jan M. Holtsclaw
