Have not known Wilda that long, but when visiting her Post in Danville she showed such wonderful personality in welcoming those she may not have known for long. She had such presence and a smile that was so welcoming. She will be missed in the Dept. of Virginia Auxiliary and condolences to all who loved her.

I was so sorry to hear about Wilda's accident but glad to know she is a better place. I recently talked with her via text. She told me how happy she at her new place and her plans to hold a Bible study. Little did she know that she would me moving to a better place where she would love even more . . . Heaven. And she would be learning more than any Bible study here on earth. Wilda would be learning from J esus himself. Will miiss hervumtil we meet again.

“ Wilda sat in front of me in church. I will miss seeing her there. One Sunday Wilda had the cutest little pin on her jacket and I commented on it and she took the pin off and gave it to me. I will always cherish the little high heel shoe covered in rhinestones. RIP

“ Wilda will be missed by her Hope Church family. She was such a kind hearted, thoughtful, loving and giving, and precious lady. Her sweet smile lit up the room. I will certainly miss her praises. There was never a doubt that she loved Jesus, her son Matt, her friends and her family. I am so thankful to have known her and grateful that we will meet again in our forever home in heaven. ❤️

“ So sad to hear the news about Wilda. She will be missed at American Legion 1097 Ladies Auxiliary & by anyone that knew her. She was always a joy to talk to & she truly loved her Mom & all of her family. She was always updating me on her son in the military & she was one proud Mom, for sure. I pray that the Lord will give the family & friends a peace like you have never had before. We are praying for each of you & if you need us, you know where to contact us.
