We send our deepest regrets to Rev. Blalock's family. We pray that you will be comforted by your good memories of him and the time you spent together.

Rev. Blalock was a wonderful man and a loving pastor. He ministered to our parents, Claudine and Solomon Inman, in such a caring manner throughout the latter years of their lives. He visited them regularly in their home, talked with them about their needs and concerns, and prayed with them lovingly. We are grateful to him for his ministry, not only to our parents but to all the others he served while he was a minister. He will be missed by many, but his legacy will live on because of all the good he accomplished.
