

William Boulware

September 25, 1944 - August 11, 2009

William Coleman Boulware, 64, of 157 Sweetbriar Drive died suddenly on Tuesday, August 11, 2009 at Danville Regional Medical Center in the Emergency Room. Mr. Boulware was born on September 25, 1944 in Danville, VA the son of the late John Douglas Boulware and the late Stella Main Boulware. He spent all of his life in the Danville area where he worked for Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. in the Curing Department for 34 years until his retirement. He enjoyed attending his grandchildren's softball games and he was a member of Woodberry Hills Baptist Church. On April 2, 1965 Mr. Boulware married Rebecca Elliott Boulware who survives of the residence. He is also survived by two daughters, Gwendolyn B. Burner and her husband Larry of Ringgold, VA and Teresa B. Hyler and her husband William of Danville, VA; four grandchildren, Courtney Burner, Rebekah Burner, Kaleb Coleman Hyler, and Genna Hyler; and one double first cousin, Peggy Bryant of Danville, VA. Mr. Boulware was predeceased in death by a brother, John Douglas Boulware II. A Memorial Service will be held for Mr. Boulware on Thursday, August 13, 2009 at 3:00 P.M. at the Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel with the Reverend Lewis Harris, the Reverend Larry Ferrell, and the Reverend Steve Howard officiating. The family will receive friends following the memorial service and at other times at the residence. In lieu of flowers the family suggest memorial donations be made to Woodberry Hills Baptist Church Building Fund , 617 Audubon Drive Danville, VA 24540 or to the Diamond Fever Fast Pitch Softball Organization at P.O. Box 11352 Danville, VA 24543.

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Boulware family.