

William Camp

November 11, 1933 - May 20, 2010

William "Bill" Russell Camp, Jr., 76, of Tarboro, NC, was surrounded by his family as he passed away peacefully on Thursday, May 20, 2010 at Heritage Hospital in Tarboro, NC after being in declining health for several years. Mr. Camp was born in Charlotte, NC on November 11, 1933 the son of the late William Russell Camp, Sr. and the late Jessie Johnson Camp. He lived in Danville, VA where he graduated from the former Schoolfield High School in 1951 prior to moving to NC where he spent most of his life. He was employed by North Carolina Corrections as a certified substance counselor and a L.P.N. until his retirement. He was a member of Schoolfield United Methodist Church. Mr. Camp is survived by three sisters, Jo Ann Barber and her husband Eugene, Mary C. Moore, and Sonja C. Willis all of Danville, VA; and one brother Stephen F. Camp and his wife, Laretta of Charlottesville, VA. And numerous nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be conducted on Saturday, May 22, 2010 at 2:00 p.m. at the Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel with the Reverend David Turbyfield and the Reverend Robert Vermillion officiating. Interment will follow the service in Danville Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends on Friday, May 21, 2010 from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the funeral home and at other times the family will be at the residence of Jo Ann Barber at 215 Salisbury Circle, Danville, VA. In lieu of flowers the family suggests that memorial donations be made to the American Lung Association at 1301 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20004 or to a charity of your choice. Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Camp family.
