William Andrew Idol, Jr., affectionately known as W.A. or Bill by his family, 77, of Greensboro, passed away Sunday, April 27, 2025, at Beacon Place hospice home surrounded by his family and friends.

Born, January 10, 1948, in Greensboro to Onie Brann Idol and William Andrew Idol, Sr. A lover of history and genealogy, he could be found in a cemetery writing names and dates of service members or family in his notebook, followed by a trip to the library for research, printing of numerous pages, all to add to his many binders, organized by county and to the detail that would make a historian jealous. He was an avid lover of Atlanta Braves baseball, Carolina Tar Heels basketball, and the Carolina Panthers football.

Preceded in death by his parents, he is survived by his beloved wife of 24 years, Peggy, mother-in-law Alice Adkins, two sons Philip Dixon and wife Whitney of Winston Salem, Stephen Dixon of Raleigh, and two stepsons Joey Epperson and wife Candy of Burlington, and Danny Epperson and wife Laurie of Summerfield. He is also survived by six grandchildren Hallie Dixon, Brett Dixon, Haleigh Shutt (Epperson), Daniel Epperson, Megan Gammon (Epperson) and Jill Epperson; one great grandchild Ellie Mae Gammon and a host of numerous extended family and friends.
