“ Several years ago I worked at the Danville Register & Bee in the obituary section. Through this I came to know all of the Marleys, but especially Don. He was always a delight to work with and always a gentleman. Please accept my sincere sorrow for his family but most of all my sadness for losing a wonderful friend.

“ The people of Caswell County have truly lost a real friend. I going to miss sitting next to him at The Drug Store having coffee and talking about aspects of life. Don was a close friend of my wife and myself. May Barbara and the family finds peace that Don is in a better place now, a place where there is no more pain and sorrow. Thank you Don for being a good friend.,
